- Conference feedback

We are pleased to announce that our own Dr. John Sullivan was the keynote speaker at the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) 2007 Annual Educational Conference. NAMI is dedicated to improving the quality of life of those affected by mental illness/brain disorders.

The conference was a full day of learning and sharing of programs and workshops supporting the theme of families and communities coming together. Attendees included family members, consumers, and mental health professionals. Dr. Sullivan, co-founder of Institute for Family Centered Services, gave a hopeful presentation that stressed useful and non-judgmental approaches to working with whole families to improve the lives of individuals with severe mental health challenges.
